Investigation in Veterans' Bureau Expected to be Shown

PROSECUTIONS THREATENED

Senate Committee to Sift Data Next Week

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — A prediction that "dishonesty on a pretty big scale" will be revealed "here and there" by the investigation of the veterans' bureau was made today by John P. O'Ryan, special counsel for the investigating committee on the basis of information gathered by him in a preliminary survey of conditions.

General O'Ryan declined to go into details but indicated his belief that to a great degree the very method of handling large funds in the bureau had encouraged irregularities. He said that wherever evidence of criminal acts was uncovered, it would be laid before the department of justice.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

The inquiry has been conducted for the past month has reached the stage, he said, where sessions of the senate committee itself probably will begin next week. He indicated that after several executive meetings the committee members would be asked to make a tour of the country for personal inspection of the various bureau projects. After that, hearings are to be opened here.

In predicting that dishonesty would be found in the past conduct of bureau affairs, General O'Ryan suggested that it was inevitable that where so much money was appropriated there was a psychological tendency to do everything on a lavish scale, in a hurry and without the proper safeguards. "It was almost an invitation to be dishonest," he added.

The committee counsel indicated that the complaints received would be divided into three groups. Those which cannot be substantiated will be dropped, he said, those where nothing criminal was proved but where he believed there was something wrong, will be laid before the committee and those clearly involving criminality will be turned over to the department of justice.

FOUR GIVEN FINES FOR TRAFFIC LAW VIOLATION

Three persons were fined $1 each for parking without tail lights by Judge Jackson in criminal court Wednesday and one was assessed $10 for speeding.

Herold Jennings, 1023 W. Spring-st., was fined for driving his car 34 miles an hour. The tail light violation was Robert Nesbitt, 822 Illinois-st., A. B. Herr, 503 S. Metcalf-st., and George Lindemann, 118 S. Metcalf-st. Cases against the following traffic law violators were dismissed: R. W. Huenes, Spring and Cole-sts.; Jim Cory, 523 S. Woodlawn-av.; Rev. Saunders, 956 W. High-st.; Joe Agostino, 771 S. Union-st.; Ray Mooney, 217 S. College-st.; Carl Kitch, 217 S. College-st.; Carl Kitch, 217 S. College-st.; and Carl Kitch, 217 S. College-st.

LORAIN'S MAYOR REPLIES TO LEAGUE'S QUESTIONS

Lorain's mayor, William F. Gail, replying Wednesday to the questions asked last week by the Ohio Municipal League, president of the Ohio Municipal League, declared in favor of the "wholesome" method of receiving street paving bids as against the present almost universal plan of receiving separate bids for each street.

BIDS FOR PAVING BONDS WILL BE OPENED MAY 9

Bids for the purchase of $225,000 worth of bonds to defray the cost of paving 14 streets for which contracts were recently let will be opened at city hall at 12 noon May 9, it was announced Wednesday.

The bonds will mature at various times between 1924 and 1932 and will carry an interest rate of 5 per cent. They will be paid off when assessments against abutting property are collected.

WORK ON RECEIPTS FOR JUNE TAX IS STARTED

Life as a county treasurer is just one collection after another, Harry E. Watkins declared.

February collection has been completed and now he and his assistants are getting ready for the June task, by making up the receipts in advance.

Allen-co Boy Winning Fame In The Field of Astronomy

Six-inch Lens Mounted in Observatory at Scotts Crossing

HOBNOBS WITH THE STARS

L. C. Peltier Member of American Astronomical Society

Ever see Saturn's ring? Knew it had rings, did you? Try this one then. How have the planets grown up, reached maturity and become full bodied?

Simple enough, as L. C. Peltier, of Scotts Crossing will tell you. The planets have grown up from nuclei by the accretion of scattered planetesimals.

Peltier, a little past 24 years of age, is a son of Stanley Peltier, of Scotts Crossing, knows all that and a lot more. His hobby is hobnobbing with the stars. He has never taken a course in astronomy, but his monthly records of celestial activity form a part of the log books of the American Astronomical Society, of which he is a member.

Young Peltier first became interested in the doings of the stars in 1917. He purchased a two-inch telescope, which he mounted at the top of a post equipped with a grindstone as a revolving base. He joined the American Association of Variable Star Observers and thru favorable work in connection with that association obtained the loan of a four inch telescope from Harvard.

In February, 1922, Princeton university loaned him the telescope in use at his observatory at present. It is a six-inch instrument and is known as a "Six Inch Comet Socker."

For four years Peltier did all his observing out in the open. Then it was decided that he should have an observatory and although neither he nor his father had ever been inside an observatory in the fall of 1921 they built by axes work the structure which now houses the telescope.

The observatory, equipped with base for the telescope and a revolving dome enabling focus toward all parts of the sky, houses the only observatory in this section of the state. The nearest observatory works at Cleveland.

Peltier makes nightly observations and the results go in to astronomers at Harvard in the form of monthly reports. They are then printed in "Popular Astronomy" and "The Sky" (part of the technical and somewhat obscure looking figures that go to make up the history of surrounding worlds, called by the uninitiated stars and moons and suns).

Peltier's election to the American Astronomical Society occurred in January at Cambridge and without his knowledge. The society includes in its membership only those who are probably the foremost authorities on astronomy in the country.

Peltier takes his astronomical honors very calmly. He has made no claims for the future, other than working on his father's farm and continuing his nightly scrutiny of the planets.

RECEIVES NO PAY
He receives no remuneration for his observations and the work is performed because he likes it. The millions of stars not visible to the naked eye form a much greater attraction to him than those lesser stars of his personal world. Not that Peltier indulges in any high flown tribute to the "silent grandeur of the heavens." He speaks very little of either himself or his work.

He denies that he has ever done any original work. At one time, he admits, he discovered two phenomena, but learned later they had been discovered before without his knowledge.

To the average man, whose knowledge of astronomy is confined to the thesis that the moon is not made of green cheese, ability to detect a pair of strangers in an assemblage of some millions, is ample proof that he knows his stars.

Peltier certainly knows the sky.

FATHER OF LIMA MAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Word was received here Wednesday by Morgan C. Newton, 118 N. College-st., of the death of his father, D. L. Newton, prominent oil man of Bowling Green, which occurred in Santa Monica, Calif., where Mr. and Mrs. Newton were visiting.

Death resulted from injuries received in an automobile accident.

Lip Stick Not Barred In City, County Schools

Lima school misses may wield a lip stick, if they say so.

Lima and Allen-co educators see no reason why arbitrary action should be taken that will separate the young girl from her first aid kit. This knowledge should be re-assuring to young girls with cosmetic tendencies. In view of the fact that a recent decision of the supreme court of Arkansas upheld the action of a school board in summarily dismissing Miss Pearl Pugsley from the Knobel high school. The charge against Miss Pugsley was that she powdered her face.

"Allen-co has no arbitrary rulings on the matter of regulating the use of cosmetics by students," C. A. Arganbright, county superintendent stated Wednesday. "There has never been any need for one," he added. "County schools work on the theory that it is better to encourage the proper use of such aids to nature thru the influence of the teacher, rather than by arbitrary ruling."

That the decision of the board of education in Arkansas, once given, should have been satisfied, Arganbright also believed. He declared, however, that the real solution of such problems lies not in what can be done, but in what can best be done.

"The schools of the country exist for the boys and girls. It should be remembered," he added, "that the 'characteristic of the ultra-proper days,' was the way J. E. schools, commented on the decision of the Arkansas supreme court.

Collins is certain that school girls of today are more sensible in the use of cosmetics and declares that the question does not require consideration by Lima educators. There are no rules regulating either the amount, frequency or consistency with which the local school girls may consult her complexion accessories, he stated.

LONG FACED VARIETY IS NOT TRUE CHRISTIANITY, BOARDWALK PASTOR SAYS

"Long-faced Christianity is not true Christianity," Dr. Robert Arwood, pastor of the Boardwalk Presbyterian church, of Atlantic City, told members of the Lima club at the weekly luncheon Wednesday at the Y.M.C.A. club.

Dr. Arwood spoke on the Value of the Play Spirit in the Business World.

The speaker took occasion at one point in his address to remark on Lima's dirty streets.

"Clubs such as the Lion's promote the play spirit and afford an opportunity for relaxation," the speaker said. "They give you a chance to continue the boy spirit that you have lost."

"And that renewal of the spirit of boyhood ought to be carried into the home," Arwood declared. "For the sake of the children and the community for the sake of your fellow-citizens."

Arwood presented an outline of the seventh international convention of Lion's club, which will be held at Atlantic City in June, and urged Lima members to attend.

Robert E. Ashley and John All-gier were in charge of the program.

WOMEN GIVEN VERDICT FOR $30 WAGE CLAIM

A jury of six men, in Justice E. M. Watkins' court, Wednesday found in favor of Mrs. Mary V. Keller, N. Central-av., plaintiff in an action for wages against Mrs. H. C. Rickle, N. Elizabeth-st.

A counter claim for $133 for board and lodging filed by Mrs. Rickle was disregarded by the jury.

FINAL PLANS FORMING FOR B. C. HOUSEWARMING

The committee in charge of plans for opening night at the Board of Commerce Thursday met Wednesday afternoon at the Board office to make final arrangements for the evening's entertainment.

Members of the committee are Mark Koller, L. B. Timmerman, A. C. Calajacobs, Jess Rose and Jack Beall.

PROPERTY SALE ASKED

Sale of property in High and Cemetery-sts., belonging to Fred Lindell, is asked in foreclosure proceedings commenced in common pleas court Wednesday by Dr. William Roush American Bank-bldg.

He asks that the sale be made to satisfy a $100 justice court judgment recently awarded him.

BLUE SKY DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF OHIO HAS REFUSED ITS CONSENT TO THE SALE OF $100,000,000.00 OF SECURITIES OF QUESTIONABLE CHARACTER.

During the past few weeks 11 corporations seeking to sell such securities have been refused permission, and rights previously granted to 59 others have been revoked.

BOY MISTREATED, WOMAN CHARGES

Recites Story to Board; Incident Closed, Austin Says

Hearing of charges by Mrs. Emily Hess, 403 S. Baxter-st., that her 7-year-old grandson, Winter Reid Newhouse, had been mistreated by his second grade teacher at Faurot school, enlivened the meeting of the city school board Tuesday evening.

The boy was withdrawn from school during January and February, according to Mrs. Hess, because Miss Helen Elaz, then in charge of the second grade, slapped him and pulled his hair. The boy's teacher then tried to prevent him from reporting his treatment to his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Hess said.

Mrs. Hess called Superintendent J. E. Collins and reported that the boy could not get along with Miss King, Collins told her that Miss King was in charge of her own room and that he could not interfere.

Ralph Austin, president of the board, also told Mrs. Hess that the boy must submit to discipline if he wished to attend school.

Miss King has since married and is now living in Connecticut. The boy is in school and getting along very well.

"We regard the incident as closed," Austin told Mrs. Hess. "We have done everything possible to straighten the matter out. The boy is getting along nicely in school and there is nothing further to be done."

Frank Mullenhour was appointed by the board as a committee of one to investigate furnace equipment for the McKinley and Irving schools. Eight new heaters will be purchased.

QUARANTINE BROKEN AT SANDUSKY BY LIMA MAN

Reports from Sandusky Tuesday afternoon that R. W. Crosby, manager of a skating rink there, had jumped a smallpox quarantine and was supposed to have come to Lima, and now declared to have been erroneous.

Crosby did not have the smallpox and has not left Sandusky, it is stated. Crosby told Sandusky police that the man who has smallpox is Al Beuteman, one of his employees, who resides near Lima and that was Beuteman who skipped quarantine.

Lima police had received no information from Sandusky officers. Neither had Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner, nor Dr. J. B. Poling, city health commissioner, been notified.

CITY APPOINTMENT HELD UP; MAY ABOLISH OFFICE

Appointment of an assistant to the city sealer of weights and measures will be held up pending an attempt to handle the work with the present force, it was announced at city hall Wednesday.

J. W. Shertoff, sealer of weights and measures, is arranging his schedule so that the duties of the assistant will be absorbed into the general administrative plan.

STORY IN NEWS LEADS TO RECOVERY OF DRESS

Thru local police and a story in The Lima News, Miss Harriett McDowell, 644 W. Spring-st., recovered a cotton crepe dress Wednesday, taken from her apartment last week.

A friend of the woman called the police Wednesday and told them that she had seen the dress in The News and said the dress had been found on Market-st. It was returned to the owner.

ALARMS CALL FIREMEN OUT TWICE; NO DAMAGE

Firemen made two runs Wednesday, but there was no damage at either place where fire had been reported.

The first was at the rear of the Feldman & Co. store where a rubbish blaze had caused someone to turn in an alarm. The other was at 728 W. North-st., but no fire was found.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE IS APPROVED BY COURT

Sale of real estate in litigation a suit instituted by A. C. Hoyer and John Hooker against Leon J. Andrews and others, was approved by Judge C. Becker, Wednesday.

Execution of a deed was ordered by the court, and the receiver's report confirmed. L. E. Justus, receiver, was allowed $25 compensation for his services.

WARM SHOWERS ARE IN OFFING

"April showers bring May flowers." It's true, all right, and no one minds the visitation of moisture, provided it isn't cold rain. Warm showers are an effective inducement to nature's growth to "get a jump on," but there has not been much of a chance thus far. Even the dandelions have failed to perform in a seasonable manner.

Increasing cloudiness, followed by showers late tonight or Thursday.

Cooler Thursday, and in extreme north portion tonight. Warmer in south portion tonight.

This augurs well for the early re-awakening of nature and the bringing about of a state of affairs such as one expects at this time of the year. Since the Groundhog has had his day and the March Lion and Lamb have asserted themselves, there has been a weather uncertainty that fools even the old timers.

Visitors from far places take with a grain of salt the statement that a cold and gloomy condition at this period of the spring season in this latitude is unusual, but it is nevertheless a fact. In truth, spring will have to hurry, or summer—according to the calendar—will crowd it off the map.

DEATH OF WOMAN AT 92 RECALLS PIONEER DAYS WHEN INDIANS WERE HERE

Mrs. Julia Ann Shull, 92, grandmother of Mrs. Harriet Bussert, 6 Jean-st., died Tuesday afternoon at her home in Beaverdam. She was the widow of Jackson Shull.

Mrs. Shull is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. Weaver of Beaverdam, and Mrs. Charles Roper, of Kenton. She was born in Bath-twp in 1832 and often recalled that there then were as many Indians as white people in the territory. A brother, Robert Allison, the only surviving member of a family of eleven children, resides in Kansas.

Funeral services for Mrs. Shull will take place at 2 p. m. Thursday at the residence in charge of Rev. William Soles. Interment in the Beaverdam cemetery.

HEALTH CONDITIONS IN BLUFFTON SCHOOLS GOOD

Health conditions in Bluffton high schools are very good, Dr. J. J. Sutter announced Wednesday, after an inspection of 250 students at that place.

The health inspection was conducted by Dr. Sutter, with the assistance of Bluffton physicians, Mrs. Anna Fletcher, county health nurse and Miss Charlotte Bussert, of the Child Welfare association.

COMMISSIONERS REFUSE TO CLOSE AMANDA-TP ROAD

County commissioners refused to close the Riedel in Amanda-tp to traffic, after hearing arguments presented by petitioners.

The road, an east and west outlet onto two north and south county highways, it has been used by traffic for more than a quarter of a century. About 20 families reside on the road, which is less than two miles long.

INDUSTRIAL BODY OF COMMERCE BOARD MEETS

The newly appointed industrial development committee of the Board of Commerce held its first local inspection trip Tuesday afternoon, following a meeting at the office at 2 p. m.

The committee, consisting of five local business men, was created for the purpose of offering assistance to local industries and to form a council on the introduction of new industries in Lima.

WATER BILL CUT FROM $104 TO $45 IN COURT IN SUIT AGAINST CITY

A water bill for 104, presented by the city to Mrs. Anne Bloom, E. Kibbey-st., in July 1921, was sliced to $45 in common pleas court Wednesday.

Mrs. Bloom will pay the amount, which was agreed upon, outside of court. Payment of the bill has been held up for two years past by an injunction granted the plaintiff, on the grounds that the bill was out of reason.

A hearing in the case was had before Judge Barker recently and the case taken under advisement. An agreement by the city to knock $58 off the bill caused the case to be ended without waiting for the court to make a decision.

A similar case brought by Judge Kent Hughes, of appeals court, to compel the city to lower his water rentals, has been settled without trial, it was learned Wednesday.

Judge Hughes obtained a concession amounting to more than $100, it is stated.

JUDGMENT OF $100 KEPT ALIVE 26 YEARS, PAID

Judgment kept alive for 26 years was settled in common pleas court Wednesday, when J. S. Bennett, Columbus Grove, deposited the sum of $159.35 with John T. Cotner, clerk of the court.

The judgment was obtained in 1897 by Thompson & Son, former Lima meat market men, John L. Thompson, the son, will receive the money. The amount due has more than doubled in the 26 years, due to accumulation of interest. The judgment was revived last in July, 1922, court officials say.

CITY HALL GETS REPORT ON DAYTON PUBLISHERS

A publishing house in Dayton which has been operating in Lima, makes promises of premiums to persons who obtain magazine subscriptions for it and then changes managers, leaving the solicitor in the hole, according to a report of Dayton city detectives received at city hall Wednesday.

The premiums are offered, officials say, for a certain number of subscriptions, but about the time a solicitor approaches the specified number a new manager takes charge and disclaims all responsibility for promises made by his predecessor.

The Lima Better Business bureau will investigate local complaints on the company, it was said.

JURY EXCUSED

Because attorneys in several cases scheduled for trial in common pleas court were not ready to proceed, members of the jury panel summoned for Wednesday morning were excused until Friday, by Judge Fred G. Becker.

HIGHER UP LIQUOR MEN SOUGHT

Judge Demands Arrest of Wealthy Behind Bootleggers

DECLARES LAW IS STIFLED

"Why do Real Offenders Escape?" Chicago Jurist Asks

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — A spring drive against liquor law violators in Chicago got under way today when the federal grand jury met under instructions from Judge James H. Wilkerson to ferret out and bring to court the higher ups who "finance the huge deals which have become public recently."

Altho Judge Wilkerson did not refer directly to the recent distribution of the stock of Grommes and Ulrich, liquor dealers who disbanded and divided 2,000 cases of fine liquors among Gold Coast stockholders, he gave the jury carte blanche to delve to the bottom of all liquor deals in Chicago.

ARRAY OF PETTY CASES

"I have been amazed," the court told the federal grand jurors, "by the array of petty offenders of the prohibition law who are brought in to the federal courts. I want to know why the prohibition law is stifled. I want to know why the real offenders are not brought into court."

"I want to know what are the powers that finance the huge deals which have become public recently, and why only drivers and petty peddlers are cited for prosecution."

"The most dangerous tendency in this nation today is the tendency of high class persons, men of wealth and means, men of reputation and supposed standing, to violate and evade the prohibition law."

ENFORCEMENT IN OHIO

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — Prohibition enforcement in Ohio last month netted the state and federal government $139,774.57 in fines, taxes and penalties, State Director Russell reported to federal commissioner Haynes today.

There were 168 arrests and 75 prosecutions, according to the report.

Russell predicts the next mayoralty election in Ohio will be based on the prohibition enforcement issue.

Cooperation of all enforcement agencies within the state is all that can be reasonably expected now, Russell said.

MAY FESTIVAL SERIES IS PLANNED IN SCHOOLS

May festival series to be given by the elementary schools of Lima will open Thursday evening at 7:30 with a program at the Horace Mann, Irving and Richardson schools, given at the Central high school auditorium.

Five programs will be given, in which pupils from each of the elementary schools of Lima will participate. It is the plan of directors of the series to have each child take part in one of the programs.

The work of the festival is under the supervision of the department of music and physical education and funds derived will go to the support of these departments. This is the second of the yearly May festivals, the first having been conducted last year.

Directors of the series are Miss Garnet Yeiser, physical education; Miss Martha Roby, music, grades 4-5 and Miss Violet Lewis, music, grades 1-3.

MANCHESTER SERVICE IS RESUMED FOR FREIGHT IN LESS THAN CARLOAD LOTS

Resumption by the Lehigh Valley Railway of what is known as the Manchester Transfer service brought the first car to Lima Wednesday. The service provides for fast shipment of freight in less than carload lots.

Small lot shipments of freight routed over the Lehigh Valley, the N. Y. C. & St. L. and the D. T. & I. from the east are transferred to the Manchester freight house, one of the largest in the country, with a capacity of 202 cars. At this point the small lot freight is sorted and dispatched to its destination on fast time.

The Manchester service was started last July and ran for a short time before being compelled to shut down on account of labor trouble. Two cars each week are arriving at the D. T. & I. freight station here at the present time and this number will be increased to one per day if local business warrants, according to J. W. Bodle, commercial agent of the Lehigh Valley, who was in Lima Wednesday.

OLD SONGS LEAD IN POPULARITY

Declared Best in Report to Cleveland Conference

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Songs written in the olden days continue to lead in popularity, according to a report made today at an address by Kenneth S. Clark, of New York, secretary of the committee on people's songs before the Music Supervisors' National Conference here.

Clark made public a list of eighteen songs which he said were the "best" number of votes from directors of community singing throughout the United States to whom questionnaires had been submitted by the committee to determine which are considered the best songs of American origin used in community singing.

The list follows:

America, the beautiful (tune, maternal); Old Folks at Home; My Old Kentucky Home; Battle Hymn of the Republic; Old Black Joe; America; Star Spangled Banner; Sweet Adeline; Dixie; Carry Me Back to Old Virginia; There's a Long, Long Trail Home; Sweet Home; Till We Meet Again; I've Been Working on the Railroad; Lili Liza Jane; Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean; Sweet Genevieve and Good Night Ladies.

This list, Clark said, will be submitted to the people in the form of a voting contest to determine the favorite song of the American people.

A concert tonight by the conference chorus and orchestra, in which the 1,500 delegates will participate, will feature today's program. Arrangements have been made to broadcast the concert by radio.

"BLOOD THAT IS THIN AS WATER"

Poor Nutrition and What You Ought to Do About It

At this season of the year, when you find you have become weakened, underweight, pale, and thin, you ought to realize your danger.

Your blood has been thinned and weakened. You are not gaining the strength you need from your food.

Then is the time that you need Father John's Medicine, which is a scientific blending of cod liver oil with other ingredients in such a way that its food elements are easily taken up by the food.

If you need a tonic, remember that Father John's Medicine does not stimulate, because it is free from narcotic drugs, but it does build new flesh and strength, because it is all pure food and wholesome nourishment.—Adv.

U.S. BARS RUSSIAN CHIEF'S WIFE

Action Taken as Protest Against Execution of Priest

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — As an avowed protest against the putting to death by the Russian Soviet government of Vicar General Butchkevitch of the Catholic church, the United States government will not permit Ekaterina Kalini, wife of the Russian president, to set foot on American soil.

Announcement was made by the state department yesterday that it has cancelled the authorization under which Mme. Kalini has intended to visit the United States in connection with the American committee for relief of Russian children.

Despite the humanitarian purpose of her visit the department, in a brief announcement of its decision, expressed the opinion that the "presence of Madame Kalini in this country is rendered wholly undesirable by the deep feeling which has been aroused by the execution of Vicar General Butchkevitch." The action, it was added, is taken "especially in protest against this execution."

Many protests against admission of the Russian president's wife were received by the state department even before the death sentence against the priest was carried out in disregard of an earnest request from the United States for a respite. Numerous other protests have since reached the department and officials stated in connection with the action taken that it would be a response to these protests as well as a protest in itself against imposition of the death penalty.

Mr. Snyder Relates How Plant Juice Relieved Stomach and Bowels

EATS WHATEVER HE WANTS

"I can highly recommend your medicine, Plant Juice, for stomach and bowel trouble because it has done more for me than anything I ever tried," said Mr. C. W. Snyder, of 618 Fairview-av, Lima, during a recent conversation with The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, where large crowds of local people are now calling daily.

"I had suffered with my stomach and bowels for a long time. I had no appetite and had to be very careful about what I ate for almost any kind of food would cause a bad attack of gas in my stomach and bowels. My bowels were irregular and I felt tired constantly and had bad headaches."

"Since I have taken your Plant Juice I have been relieved of those bad headaches and the tired worn out feeling has disappeared. I am able to eat whatever I want now without having those bloating attacks. My bowels are in good condition and I sleep fine. I think your Plant Juice medicine is great and I can surely recommend it highly for stomach and bowel troubles."

Plant Juice seems to have a surprising effect upon the stomach. It is made from the juices of medicinal plant life and people who take it say it seems to act like magic in cases of gas, bloating, indigestion, cramps, and pain in the stomach and chest, heartburn, constipation, biliousness, foul breath, unclear tongue and the many other symptoms of a disordered stomach.

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, who daily meets the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

LIMA'S PARKING PROBLEMS

REPORTS from dealers and manufacturers indicate that Lima and this community received their full share of the record output of passenger automobiles and trucks of the month of March. More machines were turned out last month than ever before in the same length of time. The total was 346,383, or production at the rate of more than four millions a year.

You may reflect that this indicates good business, prosperity in our country, and it does. Purchasing power is high, due to good wages, good business and full employment. But there is another problem in which Lima is vitally interested in this connection.

If you own a car, you certainly have had your troubles in finding a parking space when you drive to the business section. Particularly is this true on Saturdays when there are a large number of visitors from the trading district.

Lima's streets are comparatively narrow, many of them too narrow to allow parking on both sides. Taking care of automobiles will be one of the biggest things before city officials. Already steps are being taken by the Board of Commerce to obtain vacant lots which may be used for this purpose.

Various plans have been suggested and there are good points in many of them, but the one that appears the most feasible is that of limiting time machines may be left in certain sections. This system is working fairly well in a number of cities and probably would be an important aid in solving the problem here.

The number of automobiles is increasing constantly. Until such time as we are given fool-proof air machines which will rise straight up and descend straight down, we will have this congestion on our streets. It would be wise to begin a solution of the tangle before it gets worse.

PAYING FOR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

STATISTICS in Cleveland figure that it costs a father $60 a month to support a girl who is going to high school. The cost for the boy is probably some place in the same neighborhood, depending on how much gasoline he burns up.

There would not be a great deal of difference between the expense in Cleveland and Lima. If it costs $60 a month there, it probably would not be less than $50 here.

In this statement there is something for every high school boy and girl in Lima to think about. It represents only one of the sacrifices Dad and Mother are making for them in order that they may get a fair education to equip them for life's battle a little later.

Boys and girls of today give too little thought to the saving and skimping parents must go thru in order that the youngsters may have a chance. Of course, this is not true in all cases, but it is the average.

The parents who bring a boy or girl thru life to the age of 21 today have a real problem on their hands. It means giving up this and foregoing that so that John or Mary may have a chance. It would help make children more appreciative if a certain amount of time could be given in schools in which this matter was discussed from time to time.

SPEED 63 YEARS AGO AND TODAY

SIXTY-THREE years ago this April, the thing that interested Americans most was the spectacular relay races of pony express riders between the Sacramento River and St. Joseph, Mo., an eastbound relay racing to beat the fast horsemen galloping westward. Today we would be demanding a shake-up in Washington if our mail traveled that slowly. Even the swift airplane and the railroad express are not fast enough to satisfy our maniacal speed craze due to nervous impatience.

If the pony express riders and the rest of the people of 1860 could have had the choice, would they have traded places with us? Not much!

"BRAIN WORKERS" MEET

PEOPLE who call themselves "brain workers" have been holding an international conference in Paris at the Sorbonne. They have a sort of highbrow white-collar trade union, except that more members wear sport shirts and Windsor ties than starched neckties.

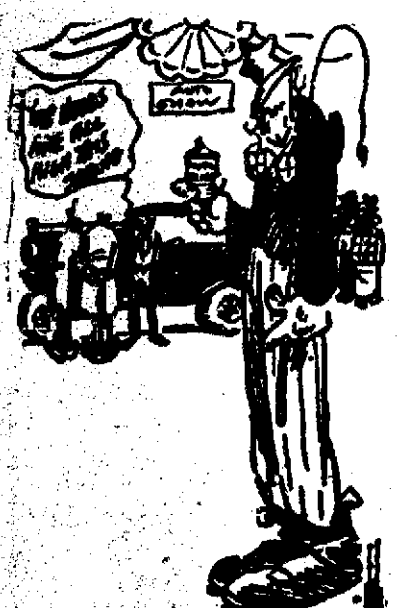

These "brain workers" have a membership of 150,000. They seem most interested in copyright laws. A big majority of them are writers and artists, so they're "emotion workers," not "brain workers." The few exceptions, who deal with intellect instead of emotions, are rarely heard of, and copyright law is the least of their troubles.

IMMIGRATION CHAOS IS BLAMED ON HYSTERIA BY WRITER

(BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT)

NEW YORK — (Special) — Do we need protection against the immigrant? Or does the immigrant need protection against us?

Chiefly the latter, says Kate Holaday Claghorn, instructor in social research of the New York School of Social Work, whose book, "The Immigrant's Day in Court," throws new light on an international problem.

"National hysteria born of war conditions still sways America," says Miss Claghorn. "The same soil of hysterical fear that brought on many of the recent agitations is now directed against the foreigner. 'Yet the fear is largely without foundation. We need new legislation restricting immigration—but not to save us so much as to save the immigrant.'

"The most rigid investigation has not been able to show that immigrant labor has lowered the wages of the American working man. Indeed, by his willingness to do the 'dirty' work, to dig in sewers and such, the immigrant has forced the American up—up into the positions of overseer and superintendent. 'The American is literally living off the foreigner.'

"But what happens to the foreigner when he lands in this country? He is exploited on every side. Swindlers rob him of his baggage and money. Taxi drivers drive him out of his way in order to extort a larger fee from him. Foremen periodically demand a part of his wages under the threat of firing him.

MISS KATE H. CLAGHORN.

meager savings in real estate, swindlers get him to sign papers the "When he desires to invest his money of which he knows nothing. 'If he loses a leg in an accident, ambulance runners' promptly get him into the power of shyster lawyers who extract every possible bit of money from him.

"When he goes to court he encounters a justice frequently hostile, many times not only mercenary but downright illiterate.

"If he happens to be a Russian and shows any interest at all in socialistic activities he stands the chance of being deported, without the security offered by the court.

"Under such circumstances the need for restriction of immigration is self-evident. It is necessary in order that the newly-arrived immigrant may be protected by the social agencies organized for that purpose. If he arrives in too great numbers it becomes increasingly hard to cope with the situation."

Present immigration laws, restricting the number of immigrants in any one year to three per cent of the number of that nationality shown in the 1910 census is, according to Miss Claghorn, fulfilling its purpose, namely that of keeping out immigrants from southeastern Europe and encouraging those from the north of Europe.

Miss Claghorn is not inclined to criticize this, however, so much as other difficulties with immigration laws which she claims are threefold: The basing of the quota upon "place of birth" is manifestly unfair, seeing that a child born of English parents on Turkish soil would have to be admitted, not under the English quota but under the Turkish.

Rigid adherence to the quota tends to break up families.

The intelligence test is unfair, seeing that feeble-mindedness, as pointed out by Mendel, may skip one branch of a family only to appear in another.

SHALL THE BABY SEE IT THRU?

The best sign of the times, a sign that the world is getting better and better every day in every way, is the willingness and the eagerness of most young mothers to nurse their babies. A few years ago it was not at all unusual for mothers to shirk or evade this duty on such flimsy grounds as social distractions, business responsibilities and even fear of physical detriment. Evolution improves the quality of the race. The reluctant and 60 per cent mothers raise inferior children, if any; the 100 per cent mothers perpetuate the race.

Numerous impediments, obstacles or accidents may defeat the young mother's effort to give her baby a square deal; most of these accidents occur in the first few days or weeks of the nursing period. I wish to give brief suggestion or instructions here in the prevention of these accidents, according to the present medical practice, not my own ideas. Cracked or fissured nipples prevent successful nursing by making the nursing act too painful and by affording a portal of entrance for bacteria which produce inflammation or abscess of the breast. To prevent this, it is the practice of some good physicians to advise daily applications of this solution to the nipples for a month or two before the arrival of the baby:

Boric acid 1 tablespoonful
Boiled water 8 tablespoonfuls
Grain alcohol 1 ounce
Enough to fill a six ounce bottle. This should be applied with pledgets of cotton. Perhaps a better plan is that suggested by Dr. J. M. Slemmons in his excellent little book, "The Prospective Mother," (published by D. Appleton & Co., New York city):

"The nipples are scrubbed for five minutes, night and morning with soap and warm water. Generally a soft brush such as a complexion brush is satisfactory; but it is too harsh at first a wash cloth may be used. After having been thoroughly scrubbed the nipples are anointed with lanolin and covered with a small square of clean old linen to prevent soiling of the clothing."

In some instances retracted or depressed nipples interfere with nursing. The older way to overcome this consisted of covering the nipple with the mouth of a bottle which had been previously warmed; the cooling of the bottle drew out the nipple. Probably a better method is for the mother to seize the nipple between her thumb and finger (first having thoroughly washed the hands) and alternately pull it out and allow it to retract, practicing this manipulation night and morning for a few minutes for several weeks before the baby's arrival if there is retraction or depression of the nipple.

If the nipples are cracked or fissured in spite of these precautions, no medication should be applied except under the physician's direction, for it is a serious matter. Nor should such appliances as nipple shields, breast pumps or protectors of any description ever be used unless by specific direction of a physician. There is probably more risk involved in the use of a pump to empty the breast than by expression of the milk by the nurse or the mother herself as instructed by the physician.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmothers' mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, cramp, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu." 35c and 65c jars and tubes.

DUALITY

One of my selves is a slave to greed, and the other's a slave to dreams.

One of them glories in brick and stone, and the other in running streams;

And part of the time I am cold and stern.

Seeking whatever my hand can earn, Planning to conquer and dare and do.

And part of the time a patch of sky Can hold me slave while the days go by.

One of my selves is brave and bold, and the other is meek and mild;

One of them would a warrior be; the other would play the child.

One of them battles for things to hold.

Land and glory and coins of gold, And the other will stand by the open sea

And follow the ships where the wind blows free.

And fancy himself a sailor-lad, Blithely singing a chantey glad.

One of my selves counts Time in gains, and the other in pleasures rare;

One of them sees but the task to do and the burdens he must bear.

The other one stands to the summer breeze
And hears its song in the swaying trees,
The sound of a brook or a linnets' call
Or a scene of beauty holds him in thrall.
And I never know when I start away
Which of the two I shall be that day.

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood, says your doctor, get the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

ICE CREAM FREE FOR 52 SUNDAYS

IF YOU SOLVE THE MYSTERY OF THE BRICK

On Tuesday, April 10th, at 10 A. M., Mr. Frank Kominek, President of the White Mountain Dairy Co., deposited in the First National Bank, a sealed envelope.

This envelope contained a sheet of paper on which three words were written. Only one living person knows what these three words are. His name is Frank Kominek.

Each of these words is the name of a flavor to be used in our new MYSTERY HEATHIZED ICE CREAM BRICK, which will be offered to the public for the first time on Saturday. To help you we are listing below the names of TWENTY-SIX ice cream flavors. Frank Kominek selected his three names from this list.

IF YOU SELECT THE THREE CORRECT FLAVORS YOU WILL RECEIVE ABSOLUTELY FREE A BRICK OF ICE CREAM EVERY SUNDAY FOR A YEAR.

All you have to do is to put a cross (X) in front of the three flavors you think are the correct ones and mail the coupon direct to The White Mountain Dairy Company or hand the coupon to a White Mountain Dairy Company dealer, who will forward it for you. Vote as often as you like. Have all the members of your family vote. Additional voting coupons may be had from any White Mountain Dairy Company dealer. Contest closes Tuesday, April 17th, at 9 p. m.

GENIUS OF THE MOVIES IS ONLY 23 YEARS OLD!

(BY GERTRUDE GILLMAN)
A little right, Sparks. Put the big white "spot" on Irving G. Thalberg, youthful prodigy of the movie industry!
 Thalberg, who at 23 directs a film business grossing $4,000,000 a year, commands a personal income of over $100,000 and is proclaimed an organization genius.
 He brings to the executive side of pictures a blending of personality and achievement ranking with that of the foremost stars in romantic interest as well as a vision which should help rid the industry of much that is now stultifying.
 Thalberg has just been given a substantial interest in the Louis B. Mayer studio. As vice president he will guide the destinies of that big concern. Prior to that he was three years director general of Universal, to which he came as assistant to the president's assistant, because he saw a brighter future in films than in the New York exporting business he then managed.
 He looks like he was meant to play the violin or write poetry rather than galvanize and expand big business concerns. And as a matter of fact, it is from sentimental and idealistic impulses seldom associated with finance that his executive talents spring.

people whose lives would otherwise be drab? How it stimulates imagination. Builds dreams. Re-creates waiting ambition. Fires new hopes. Stirring a nation with a new culture.
 "Why, the fact that thousands of people heretofore inarticulate have been prompted by motion pictures to write, not only for the screen, shows its influence in quickening mental activity."
 "Success," he said cutting back. "Is the measure of one's vital relationship made up of the world, a relationship made up of an infinite number of sentimental reactions and their material coin of exchange."
 "In this business you must have a great faith in the weight of emotions. You've got to be a sentimentalist to risk from $200,000 to $400,000 for a picture in the reasonable assurance that its way up on human hearts will reimburse and profit you."
 "You can readily see that motion pictures can't be based on cold-blooded finance like raising potatoes or selling cotton. The movie maker can't simply pour in so much money and sit back awaiting returns. He must be unusually alert to the social and economic changes that react upon fundamentally unchangeable emotions. He's got to get that into his pictures or his product is unsalable."

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided cocoon oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three table-spoonfuls of Multisided in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided cocoon oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisided.

A melodramatic title for Thalberg's career might read "Peter Pan's Way to Plutocracy," for millionaire he is certain to be, barring decided mischance, before he reaches 30.
 Actual dollars, however, by no means comprehend his idea of success.
 "I feel happy," he told me with boyish earnestness, "to have some share in molding the destinies of an agency of entertainment and enlightenment reaching some 20,000,000 Americans daily."
 That implies tremendous power and responsibility, almost awesome at times. Think of its effect upon

Keith Vaudeville At The Faurot

K EITH acts scheduled to appear at the Faurot Opera House during the week-end and promise to be highly entertaining. In advance reports may be taken as a criterion.
 As the curtain rises, Nellie and Ernest Veronica will give an unusual tumbling act which they call "Sea Shore Knockabouts." The scene depicts a beautiful sea shore and is said to be a scene of marvel of nature.
 Miss Veronica is a noted beauty, having won many contests for her beautiful face and figure. Those who like laughter generated by black face comedians, will find what they delight in when Green and Barnett take the stage. They are two hood carriers who stop work on a construction job for the purpose of executing some neat shuffle dances, to tell a story or two and sing a bit of ragtime.

It is Irving Thalberg's canny ability to do just that—to sense the changing psychology of a people and to shape all the activities of a movie producing plant to the heart hunger and mind gropings of a public—which brings him an income of $100,000 a year at 23.
 Over his dynamic personality and the consciousness of his abilities, he wears a becoming mask of modesty and quiet, unassuming courtesy. Not a trace of swagger—for which, Sparks, please keep the spotlight on him a moment longer!

Vivian Holt and Myrtle Leonard come forward with the big surprise act of the season. Both are former featured artists of the McIntyre and Heath famous show "Red Pepper" in which they made a pronounced hit. They are accomplished vocalists and in their recital lend a newness and charm to vocal numbers that is unsurpassed in fluency and artistry.

A laughter skit entitled "His Night Out" will be offered by Harry Bewley and company. While the skit is built for comedy purposes, it also will be the medium for introducing several song numbers.
 Popito Granados and Company bring to us all the romance and glamour of old Spanish traditions. Spectacular dancing novelties will be offered by expert artists brought to this country by Granados from his native land.

Speeders' accompanies the production.

When rheumatism settles in any of your joints and causes agony, distress or misery, please remember that Joint-Ease is the one remedy that brings quick and lasting relief. It matters not how chronic or aggravated a case may be—rub on Joint-Ease and relief is sure to follow.

Joint-Ease is for joint troubles only and is a clean, stainless preparation that druggists everywhere are recommending.

"My Friend, The Devil," Appearing At Lyric

G EORGES OHNET's celebrated novel, "Dr. Rameau," has been made into a motion picture by William Fox and is being shown at the Lyric theatre today and tomorrow only, under the title of "My Friend the Devil."
 The theme deals with the spectacle of a man who has lost faith in a higher being. When little more than a child he prayed that his cruel step-father be killed and at the very moment his mother, whom he loved dearly, was struck by lightning.
 The years passed and the man becomes a famous surgeon, having faith in only one thing—the power of science and learning. How he finally is forced to acknowledge himself a believer provides a powerful theme and brings a climax that is both thrilling and satisfying.

 Charles Richman, as Dr. George Dryden, gives a portrayal that promises to set a new mark for dramatic characterization. Peggy Shaw, who has had a rapid rise in motion pictures, has a prominent part in the production, portraying the role of Dr. Dryden's daughter. Barbara Castleton and William Tooker are also seen in the cast.

THE GREAT ELUSION

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1932, by E. Phillips Oppenheim Artist, NEA Service, Inc.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Vendetta begins between Michael Sayers, noted criminal, and Norman Greyes, once of Scotland Yard, when Sayers beautiful housemaid, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Sir Norman falls in love with Janet, an orphan girl, who rescues Lord Kinderley and his daughter, Beatrice, when their auto runs wild. Beatrice and Michael are in love.

Michael and his band of robbers break into Kinderley's Court and rob the guests. Beatrice is told by Sayers to keep her jewelry and later he personally returns Janet's jewelry. Michael anarranges to publish a fake obituary.

Sayers discovers Michael's hiding place and a game of golf is played with Michael's freedom as the stake.

Now go on with the story.

ANET CONTINUES:

So the match started. The first hole was halved in four, and from then onward commenced a struggle which I can hardly think of, even now, without a shiver of excitement.

Neither was ever more than two up;

but toward the sixteenth hole, I began to realize that another factor beside skill was at work. Norman topped his second shot but jumped the bunker and lay upon the green.

Michael carried the bunker with a perfectly played mashie shot, but pitched upon a moving machine and came back to an almost unplayable place in the long grass. He lost the hole. Norman, who was as nearly nervous as I have ever seen him, uttered something about bad luck,

but his adversary only shrugged his shoulders.

At the seventeenth hole Norman drove fairly well but it was still sixty yards short of the green. It was the old Michael who took his stand afterward on the tee, hard and logged. I saw his teeth gleam for a moment, and the whitening of the teeth around his knuckles as he crushed his club fiercely. He hit the ball wonderfully. I have ever seen a long and low and straight. It carried on and on, while we watched it breathlessly. Finally it ran onto the green and ended within a couple of club lengths of the hole. I gave a little gasp of relief, for from the first I had prayed that my husband might lose.

But I had reckoned without that unseen force, Norman topped his dashie shot, which bumped along the ground onto the green, passed

Michael's ball, and to my horror, dropped into the hole. Even Norman himself seemed to have a surprise. He stood looking at the spot where his ball had disappeared, his face averted from his opponent.

Michael made no remark. He studied his putt long and carefully,

but it, with a musical little click,

and we all watched it run straight for the hole. At the last moment

some trifling irregularity of surface seemed to deflect it; it caught the corner of the hole, swung round inside and came out again. It rested on the very edge, and we stood there calling. Nothing, however, happened. Michael turned away, and I noticed that I saw a little quiver upon his lips.

At the eighteenth, a strong wind was against them. Norman, pulling a little, escaped the bunkers; but

Michael, hitting a far better ball carried them with a few yards to pare. Norman played a fine second and reached the green four or five yards from the hole. When

Michael reached his ball, I saw him stop and look at it. His servant gave an exclamation. It was Janet where a huge cloud of earth had been knocked away by some beam-er and never replaced, without a blade of grass around it and on a downward slope. I looked across toward my husband.

"It isn't fair," I whispered hoarsely. "Move it with your foot. Norman can't see. Besides, I'm in the way."

Michael who was choosing a club,

just glanced up at me for a moment,

and I felt as tho I had said something sacrilegious.

"We don't play games that way,"

he said.

"I never saw such filthy putting

in my life," Norman exclaimed,

looking exactly like a normal man

who has lost an important match by

a moment's carelessness. "Your match, Monsieur Beauséant. I think

perhaps you deserved it. You had

all the worst of the luck until my

putting paralysis set in."

Michael took off his hat, and I saw

great beads of perspiration upon his forehead.

"I am thankful for my win," he said quietly, "but I scarcely expected

it."

"Janet and I will leave St. Jean de Luz at once," Norman announced.

"It will not be necessary," Michael rejoined quickly. "Tomorrow I start for the mountains. I shall be gone for a week or more. I beg that you will not hurry your departure. I may I speak to you for a moment,

Janet?"

Norman made his way, without remark, to the clubhouse. He neither said a word nor looked toward Michael again. Men are strange beings. This was the passing of the feud which left them both forever.

I spared Michael the question which I knew was upon his lips.

he rejoined quietly. "I am afraid

this is going to be rather a forlorn

hope, tho."

He took a niblick, and against the wind he was only able to get about halfway to the green. This time, however, his ball was lying well.

"I play the odd," he murmured as he selected a running-up stick. We waited breathlessly for the shot.

Norman's caddy and Michael's servant, although they had no idea of course, of the significance of the match, had gathered from our tense expressions that it was of no ordinary interest. We all watched Michael's ball, when at last he played it, spell-bundly. It was a slow shot, beautiful ly straight for the flag, and I could hardly keep back a little cry of joy

when I saw it land on the green and run slowly two or three yards past the hole.

"A fine recovery," Norman said thickly. "My turn now to play the like."

He took his putter and my heart sank as I saw him strike the ball well and firmly. For a moment it seemed as though he had holed it and the match was over. It came to a standstill about eighteen inches short.

"This for a half," Michael remarked as he went toward his ball.

I saw him half close his eyes as he took up his stance, and I wondered for a moment what he was thinking of. He took the line carefully and struck the ball straight for the back of the hole. I gave a little gasp. It seemed as though the ball were assured. Then a cry of dismay from Michael's caddy startled me. The ball, although it had seemed to hit the back of the hole, spun round and came out again. Again it lay within a foot or so of the hole. Michael stood quite still, looking at it.

Norman took up his putter, and I scarcely dared to watch. He was only a few inches from the hole.

The result seemed certain.

"This for the match," he said,

looking across at his opponent.

"For the match," Michael repeated hoarsely.

Norman struck the ball with a little stab—and I could scarcely believe my eyes. It missed the hole passing it on the left-hand side and coming to a standstill at least two feet away. Norman looked down at the ground in a puzzled manner.

"This is the rottenest green on the course," he muttered. "Whose play,

caddy?"

The caddy considered the matter

for a moment and pointed to Michael. This time there was no mistake. The ball went well and truly to the bottom of the hole. Norman again surveyed me. He studied his marvelous little putt with exaggerated care, brushed away some interference and reproved his caddy sharply for talking. When he hit the ball, he hit it crisply enough, but again with that little stab which drew it once more to the wrong side of the hole. There was a little murmur.

"I never saw such filthy putting

in my life," Norman exclaimed,

looking exactly like a normal man

who has lost an important match by

a moment's carelessness. "Your

match, Monsieur Beauséant. I think

perhaps you deserved it. You had

all the worst of the luck until my

putting paralysis set in."

Michael took off his hat, and I saw

great beads of perspiration upon his forehead.

"I am thankful for my win," he said quietly, "but I scarcely expected

it."

GIANTS DEFEATED BY TOLEDO MUD HENS IN GAME HERE

Game Very Loosely Played

(By RICHARD A. THORNBURG)

These New York Yankees were completely walked on in the first two innings of the game Tuesday afternoon at Murphy-st park with the Toledo Mud Hens. However, as the afternoon progressed they improved some and nearly gained a level footing with the association club.

But the game was halted at the end of the eighth inning because everyone concerned, including the fans, felt that a warm stove or steam radiator in town would be better than a frigid ball park. And when the last ball was pitched, Toledo still had a 9 to 7 victory tucked under her belt.

RUN LEAD

In the opening chapter the dirt and water fowls from up north took a nice comfortable two runs lead but fearing that three runs wouldn't be so comfortable long, hung up five more in the second frame. The Giants made one run in the opening session and so trailed seven markers behind until the fourth when Dolan's second string world champion aggregation looked on to one more run. Then Whitfield's Toledo fished one more out. In the sixth two were made for New York, one in the seventh and two more in the eighth. It looked for a little while as the National leaguers might overcome the early lead but they failed to do it.

The longest hit of the afternoon was Nicholson's triple which scored Lamar from first base. Lamar had reached the initial sack when he lined a hard one thru third, the ball going between Rawlings' legs, much to that personage's surprise and chagrin.

Covengross was battered around considerably during the first two chapters but then Johnson, the Texas hurler, with the wicked fade-away which friends say he secures by the use of the juice of a cactus plant, held sway for the Giants and the Mud Hens couldn't find him to any great extent. Glad, Toledo hurler, who was with the club last year but was a little wild at times on his deliveries, worked successfully on the mound and also hit with apparent ease by the New Yorkers. He seemed to be able to pull out of the tight places in good shape. He walked five Yankees and fanned a couple.

BAD DAY

McPhee at short stop had a bad day and let three blows off Toledo bats wobble out of his hands. Kerman, recently of Yale university did the receiving in place of "Old" Smith. He held up his end of the battery in nice fashion. McGuire, former Holy Cross college star, plays second like a coming star. With Frisch holding down the keystone sack for the Giants he will have few chances to get into action if he sticks with the regulars but he will be getting some mighty fine pointers from one who knows how to handle the position.

Yanigans and Mud Hens left at 5:50 o'clock this morning for Springfield where they played Wednesday and then to Zanesville for a pair of games on Thursday and Friday. On Saturday and Sunday they will be in Toledo and then probably will move toward the "Bright Lights of 'H' of New York." The visitors were well pleased with their entertainment here and all "hoped they'd get another chance to come to Lima."

MAULIFFE TO BEGIN TRAINING ON APRIL 20

DETROIT — Jack Mauliffe, Detroit heavyweight who is to meet Lou Fike in New York May 12, plans to begin training there. April 20, his manager announced. Mauliffe will engage in light workouts before his departure for the east. He has fully recovered from a recent attack of influenza and doctors say he is in better condition than when he was knocked out by Walker.

WILLARD IN GREAT SHAPE FOR BIG TEST WITH JOHNSON

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. — Jess Willard.

Look over the pictures of the former champion in golf attire and judge for yourself.

Willard says that he is in far better shape right now than when he lost the championship to Jack Dempsey at Toledo. He certainly looks the part.

The big fellow is hard as nails. Has lost practically every pound of the superfluous flesh that clung to his waistline when he started training. He looks physically fit. Says he is. Willard seems to be the only person not worrying about his bout with Floyd Johnson in New York May 12.

WILLARD CONFIDENT

Rumors have it that Jess may not box in New York. Despite the stories the ex-champ sticks to the routine of training, says he will surely beat Johnson.

If he wins over Johnson, a bout with Dempsey is a certainty. Willard is confident that he will reverse the verdict of the first meeting. He insists back of condition lost him his title, that he failed to take the chances of Dempsey seriously.

"I could do 15 rounds today at ten speed," was Willard's reply to how he felt. "I am positive I will defeat Johnson. Such a victory will win for me the consideration that New York boxing officials now refuse to give."

HAS TAKEN UP GOLF

And each day the big ex-champion pounds out his training schedule. With his fight six weeks away Jess is being accused of really working too hard. His manager, Ray Archer, has told him to slow up some.

But Jess is determined. He is putting in virtually four hours a day on the road, in the gymnasium and on the rubbing table.

Between training work Jess is a popular figure in the fashionable resort hotels and on the golf course. Jess has taken up golf here. He is following in the footsteps of Dempsey in that game. Jack learned to play golf here two years ago. Jess drives left-handed.

How They Scored

FIRST INNING

NEW YORK — Rawlings doubled to right field and scored on Shinners' sacrifice fly after McPhee had been thrown out. Smith to Black. Stengel fanned. One run.

TOLEDO — Pechous singled and went to second when Covengross attempted to catch him off first and threw wild. Barber hits to Stengel who muffed the fly. Lamar singled. Scoring Pechous. Nicholson hit to McPhee who touched Lamar out at second. Nicholson reaching first ahead of the ball. Barber scored on the play. Black grounded out. McPhee to Dempsey and Nicholson scored. Kelly winged out to Shinners in the right garden. Three runs.

SECOND INNING

TOLEDO — Figner out. McGuire to Dempsey. Smith walked. Glad also received a free pass to the first corner and Pechous fanned. Barber walked filling the sacks. Covengross batted one to the grand stand and Smith walked across the plate. Lamar singled and Glad and Barber scored. Nicholson hit a three bagger and Lamar scored. Black hit a single and Nicholson counted but Black went out, trying for second. Five runs.

FOURTH INNING

NEW YORK — Higbee fied out to Barber. McGuire walked, went to second on Dempsey's out at first and scored on Kerman's single. Rawlings ended the chapter by flying out to Figner in the center grass plot. One run.

TOLEDO — Lamar out. Johnson to Dempsey. Nicholson safe on McPhee's third base hit of the afternoon. Nicholson went to third on Black's out and scored on Kelly's single to right. Kelly out trying to stretch it. One run.

SIXTH INNING

NEW YORK — Dempsey walked, went to second when Kerman went to first on Pechous' error, and scored on Johnson's line drive to left for one base. Johnson was forced out on Rawlings' infield drive and Rawlings himself was in turn forced. McPhee reached the first corner safely on this play and Kerman scored. McPhee was put out at second on a forced play when Shinners hit to Pechous. Two runs.

SEVENTH INNING

NEW YORK — Stengel singled and went to third on Higbee's single. Second on first and second. McGuire lobbed one thru the same hole and Stengel scored. Dempsey fanned. Johnson grounded out. One run.

EIGHTH INNING

NEW YORK — Rawlings batted safe. McPhee singled followed by Shinners' double which scored Rawlings. Stengel fied out to Lamar. To a sacrifice bunt and McPhee scored. Higbee fied out in Figner and McGuire ended the game by grounding out. Pechous to Kelly.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Jay S. Fantz, 33, was thrown out at Life's Home Plate today.

PHYSICIANS SAY SISLER WILL PLAY THIS YEAR

ST. LOUIS — The illness of George Sisler, great first baseman for the St. Louis Americans which has caused worry on the part of officials of the club and cast gloom among the followers of the team will not permanently affect his playing ability, according to physicians attending him.

Following announcement that Sisler, who was adjudged the most valuable player in the American League last year, would soon undergo an operation for sinus trouble, the physicians today expressed the belief that the operation will not do more than delay Sisler's entry in the lineup this season. It was stated that the operation is not serious and, under normal conditions, will not leave any serious after effects. In connection with the sinus ailment, Sisler's eyes have become affected and he is under treatment for that. Tests of the eyes are said to have shown that they are normal, but the trouble lies in the muscles controlling them. The eye ailment is attributed to the nasal infection and both troubles are expected to disappear after the operation.

It was estimated that Sisler would not be in condition to play ball for at least a month after the operation.

1922 HOME RUN RECORDS EXPECTED TO FALL

NEW YORK — Following the Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis Cardinals' second baseman, led all circuits swatters, with 42. Other leading National League sluggers were Fred Williams, Phillies, 26, and George Kelly of the Giants, and Clifford Lee of the Phillies, 17 each.

Kenneth Williams of the Browns, topped the American Leaguers with 29 and was closely pressed by Tillie Walker, of the Athletics, with 27 and Babe Ruth, the champion, with 35. Ruth set the high mark of 59 homers with 59 in 1921.

FIGHT RESULTS

CHILLICOTHE — Wild Bill Reed, Columbus heavyweight, won referee's decision over Harry Krohn, Akron, in 10 rounds.

PORTLAND, Maine — Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion, won newspaper verdict over Joe O'Donnell, Philadelphia, in 12 rounds.

NEW YORK — Benny Gould, Canadian featherweight, taken to hospital with broken jaw after he had lost technical knockout to Mike Dundee, Chicago, in nine rounds.

Cozy Dolan Says Giants Will Win Flag

(By COZY DOLAN)
(New York Giant Coach)

I DON'T know about the American league but in the National league I don't think our club can be beaten.

There are several of the recruits with the first team of the Giants in training, who will stick with the club after the roster is cut down.

Welberg and Webb are a couple of hurlers that look pretty good, I think and Jackson, the kid short stop will no doubt be retained to use in an emergency.

There are three things necessary to make a big league ball player—or maybe four.

DOLAN WRITES ARTICLE FOR LIMA NEWS

Cozy Dolan, coach of the New York Giants baseball club, who has written an article exclusively for the Lima News during his stay here with the team, is an old head at the national pastime.

He played in the big show for 11 years and for the last four years has been coach of the Giants. He played with Cincinnati first, then the New York Yankees, Philadelphia Athletics, St. Louis Nationals and then to the present world's champs as coach.

His positions were third base and outfield. He knows the game from A to Z and his article will be interesting to fans of this vicinity.

A player must be able to hit well, field well and have baseball brains. There are a number of them of course who don't think very much—not as much as they should, at least. Then the fourth thing which real stars have is a sort of born ability to do the right thing at the right time. This might be included in baseball brains but very few players have it.

NOT MUCH CHANGE

The game hasn't changed radically in the last few years except for the introduction of the livelier ball which has made longer and more hits possible.

You can judge for yourself, fans, whether this has increased the popularity of the pastime. Crowds seem to be getting larger all the time.

Many a young recruit thinks he can jump from semi-pro ball and minor league ball, right into a big league berth.

In some businesses this is possible but in baseball one must start right in and work his way to the top. Success comes only to those who work for it and work mighty hard.

We are out to win the National league pennant and then the world's championship once more.

DEMPSEY MAY NOT FIGHT AGAIN

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — Jack Dempsey may never fight again.

Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, made that announcement last night after Dempsey had been elected president of the Great Western Coal Mines Company of which he is said to own the controlling interest.

"This proposition is so big," Kearns said in detailing the plans for the development of the Dempsey coal lands, "that he is thinking of selling and dedicating his entire energies to making this enterprise his life's work in the future."

If Dempsey does fight again, Kearns said he will train at Dempsey City, Utah, a town being built at the site of the Dempsey mines. Kearns is secretary and treasurer of the coal company.

The company owns 2,000 acres of coal land and 6,000 acres of agricultural land in Castle Valley including the town site. It also has a three and a half mile railroad and is building three additional miles.

"President" Dempsey announced he was going back to an old love in returning to the coal mining business. In his earlier years he worked as a miner in Colorado and West Virginia.

BILL BRENNAN WILL NOT FIGHT IN RING ANY MORE

NEW YORK — Bill Brennan, Chicago heavyweight, has quit the prize ring.

Somewhere out in the far west the Babe is ploughing eastward from Tulsa, Okla., with a heavy heart, sad memories, a strong resolution and the remainder of the New York Yankee team who won a game there yesterday from the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 4. Two Yankees and two Dodgers made home runs—but not Ruth.

Instead, Babe, the object of 2,000 school boy eyes, stood up and struck out four successive times—he only batted four times. After the game the 1,000 hero worshippers followed their idol to the club house cheering him but not in erision. Ruth was touched, and said:

"I want to come back here next year, I'd like to hit a homer for you kids. I'd like to hit one a lot, a whole lot."

MAULIFFE TO BEGIN TRAINING ON APRIL 20

DETROIT — Jack Mauliffe, Detroit heavyweight who is to meet Louis Perry in New York May 12, plans to begin training there. April 15, Mauliffe will enter in light workouts with his departure for the east. He has fully recovered from a recent attack of influenza and declares he is in better condition than he has been since Hugh Walker.

WILLARD IN GREAT SHAPE FOR BIG TEST WITH JOHNSON

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. — What about the condition of Jess Willard?

Look over the pictures of the former champ in golf attire and judge for yourself.

Willard says that he is in far better shape right now than when he lost the championship to Jack Dempsey at Toledo. He certainly looks the part.

The big fellow is hard as nails. Has lost practically every pound of the superfluous flesh that clung to his waistline when he started training. He looks physically fit. Says he is.

Willard seems to be the only person not worrying about his bout with Floyd Johnson in New York May 12.

WILLARD CONFIDENT

Rumors have it that Jess may not box in New York. Despite the superior ex-champ's sticks to the routine of training, says he will surely beat Johnson.

If he wins over Johnson, a bout with Dempsey is a certainty. Willard is confident that he will reverse the verdict of the first meeting. He insists Jack of condition lost him his title, that he failed to take the chances of Dempsey seriously.

"I could do 15 pounds today at top speed," was Willard's reply to how he felt. "I am positive I will defeat Johnson. Such a victory will win for me the consideration that New York boxing officials now refuse to give."

HAS TAKEN UP GOLF

And each day the big ex-champion pounds out his training schedule. With his fight six weeks away Jess is being accused of really working too hard. His manager, Ray Archer, has told him to slow up some.

But Jess is determined. He is putting in virtually four hours a day on the road in the gymnasium and on the rubbing table.

Between training work Jess is a popular figure in the fashionable resort hotels and on the golf course.

Jess has taken up golf here. He is following in the footsteps of Dempsey in that game. Jack learned to play golf here two years ago. Jess drives left-handed.

How They Scored

FIRST INNING

NEW YORK — Rawlings doubled to right field and scored on Shinnars' sacrifice fly after McPhee had been thrown out. Smith to Black. Stengel fanned. One run.

TOLEDO — Pechous singled and went to second when Covengross attempted to catch him off first and throw wild. Barbare hits to Stengel who muffed the fly. Lamar singled, scoring Pechous. Nicholson hit to McPhee who touched Lamar out at second. Nicholson reaching first ahead of the ball. Barbare scored on the play. Black grounded out. McPhee to Dempsey and Nicholson scored. Kelly winged out to Shinnars in the right garden. Three runs.

SECOND INNING

TOLEDO — Figher out. McGuire to Dempsey. Smith walked. Glad at second received a free pass to the first corner and Pechous fanned. Barbare walked, filling the sacks. Covengross hurried one to the grand stand and Smith walked across the plate. Lamar singled and Glad and Barbare scored. Nicholson hit a three bagger and Lamar scored. Black hit a single and Nicholson counted but Black went out, trying for second. Five runs.

THIRD INNING

NEW YORK — McPhee flied out to Barbare. McGuire walked, went to second on Kernan's out at first and scored on Kernan's single. Rawlings ended the chapter by flying out to Figher in the center grass plot. One run.

TOLEDO — Lamar out. Johnson to Dempsey. Nicholson safe on McPhee's third throw of the afternoon. Nicholson went to third on Black's out and scored on Kelly's single to right. Kelly out trying to stretch it. One run.

FOURTH INNING

NEW YORK — Dempsey walked, went to second when Kernan went to first on Pechous' error, and scored on Johnson's line drive to left for one base. Johnson was forced at second on Rawling's infield drive and Rawlings himself was in turn forced. McPhee reached the first corner safely on this play and Kernan scored. McPhee was put out at second on a forced play when Shinnars hit to Pechous. Two runs.

FIFTH INNING

NEW YORK — Stengel singled and went to third on Higbee's single between first and second. McGuire lobbed one thru the same hole and Stengel scored. Dempsey fanned and Kernan flied out to deep left. Johnson grounded out. One run.

SIXTH INNING

NEW YORK — Rawlings bunted safe. McPhee singled followed by Shinnars' double which scored Rawlings. Stengel flied out to Lamar for a sacrifice blow and McPhee scored. Higbee flied out to Figher and McGuire ended the game by grounding out. Pechous to Kelly.

SEVENTH INNING

NEW YORK — Stengel singled and went to third on Higbee's single between first and second. McGuire lobbed one thru the same hole and Stengel scored. Dempsey fanned and Kernan flied out to deep left. Johnson grounded out. One run.

EIGHTH INNING

NEW YORK — Rawlings bunted safe. McPhee singled followed by Shinnars' double which scored Rawlings. Stengel flied out to Lamar for a sacrifice blow and McPhee scored. Higbee flied out to Figher and McGuire ended the game by grounding out. Pechous to Kelly.

NINTH INNING

PHYSICANS SAY SISLER WILL PLAY THIS YEAR

ST. LOUIS — The illness of George Sisler, great first baseman for the St. Louis Americans which has caused worry on the part of officials of the club and cast gloom among the followers of the team will not permanently affect his playing ability, according to physicians attending him.

Following an announcement that Sisler, who was adjudged the most valuable player in the American League last year, would soon undergo an operation for sinus trouble, the physicians today expressed the belief that the operation will not do more than delay Sisler's entry in the lineup this season. It was stated that the operation is not serious and, under normal conditions, will not leave any serious after effects.

In connection with the sinus ailment, Sisler's eyes have become affected and he is under treatment for that. Tests of the eyes are said to have shown that they are normal, but the trouble lies in the muscles controlling them. The eye ailment is attributed to the nasal infection and both troubles are expected to disappear after the operation.

It was estimated that Sisler would not be in condition to play ball for at least a month after the operation.

1922 HOME RUN RECORDS EXPECTED TO FALL

NEW YORK — Following the baseball home run hitters has come to be one of the most interesting of the fans' hobbies. League home run records last season were shattered like eggshells under pitted drivers. They say in the training camps that 1922 records will go the same way.

Contributors to the home run records last year in the majors and leading major leagues included four first basemen, two keystone sacks, one catcher and 17 outfielders.

Cozy Dolan Says Giants Will Win Flag

(By COZY DOLAN)
(New York Giant Coach)

I DON'T know about the American league but in the National league I don't think our club can be beaten.

There are several of the recruits with the first team of the Giants in training, who will stick with the club after the roster is cut down.

Welberg and Webb are a couple of hurlers that look pretty good, I think and Jackson, the kid short stop will no doubt be retained to use in an emergency.

There are three things necessary to make a big league ball player—or maybe four.

DOLAN WRITES ARTICLE FOR LIMA NEWS

Cozy Dolan, coach of the New York Giants baseball club, who has written an article exclusively for the Lima News during his stay here with the team, is an old head at the national pastime.

He played in the big show for 11 years and for the last four years has been coach of the Giants. He played with Cincinnati first, then the New York Yankees, Philadelphia Nationals, St. Louis Nationals and then to the present worlds champs as coach.

His positions were third base and outfield. He knows the game from A to Z and his article will be interesting to fans of this vicinity.

DEMPSEY MAY NOT FIGHT AGAIN

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — Jack Dempsey may never fight again.

Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, made that announcement last night after Dempsey had been elected president of the Great Western Coal Mining Company of which he is said to own the controlling interest.

"This proposition is so big," Kearns said in detailing the plans for the development of the Dempsey coal lands, "that he is thinking of retiring and devoting his entire energies to making this enterprise his life's work in the future."

If Dempsey does fight again, Kearns said he will train at Dempsey City, Utah, a town being built at the site of the Dempsey mines. Kearns is secretary and treasurer of the coal company.

The company owns 2,000 acres of coal land and 6,000 acres of agricultural land in Castle Valley including the town site. It also has a three and a half mile railroad and is building three additional miles.

"President" Dempsey announced he was going back to an old love in returning to the coal mining business. In his earlier years he worked as a miner in Colorado and West Virginia.

Instead, Babe, the object of 2,000 school boy eyes, stood up and struck out four successive times — he only batted four times. After the game the 1,000 hero worshippers followed their idol to the club house where they were in a crisis.

"I want to come back here next year, I'd like to hit a homer for you kids, I'd like to hit one a lot, a whole lot."

BILL BRENNAN WILL NOT FIGHT IN RING ANY MORE

NEW YORK — Bill Brennan, Chicago heavyweight, has quit the prize ring.

He will fight no more, according to Joseph J. Jacobs, his attorney, who has filed suit against a New York newspaper for $100,000 damages for its client for publication of an article saying that Brennan "laid down" in his recent bout with Luis Angel Firpo of Argentina.

ILLINOIS OPENS WITH IOWA U. ON SATURDAY

URBANA, Ill. — Illinois university basketball will open their season here on Saturday in a game with Iowa, conference champs.

BUT THERE IS NO JOY IN MUDVILLE!

NEW YORK — With all his printers-ink titles—Sultan of Swat, Belomoth of Bust, Hojazz of Hit, Babe of Baseball—George Herman Ruth, the rightful king of home run hitters, feels mired out today.

Somewhere out in the far west the Babe is ploughing eastward from Tulsa, Okla., with a heavy heart, sad memories, a strong resolution and the remainder of the New York Yankees team who won a game there yesterday from the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 4. Two Yankees and two Dodgers made home runs—but not Ruth.

Instead, Babe, the object of 2,000 school boy eyes, stood up and struck out four successive times — he only batted four times. After the game the 1,000 hero worshippers followed their idol to the club house where they were in a crisis.

TIPS WON'T BRING BUSINESS GAIN

Problems Must Be Solved by Individual, Forbes Says

BOOKS ARE OF GREAT VALUE

Charts Can't Furnish Success, However, Writer Asserts

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK—(Special)—Knowing that we all naturally want to be successful, an endless number of articles and books and "courses" are published on "how to" do this, that and everything else in creation. Business men are told that if they will subscribe for certain charts, they will be able to see at a glance exactly where business stands, where it is heading for and, as a consequence, exactly how they ought to handle their affairs.

Folks who trade in stocks and bonds are also offered, at a price, simple or elaborate charts and diagrams and graphs which, it is represented, will put the purchaser on the real road to wealth by speculation, since these wonderful compilations are intended to show just what is going to happen in the future. "Inspirational" writings are in keener demand today than ever before, as the purchasers hope to learn therefrom the last one of the many "secrets" to success.

What does all this amount to? In the final analysis, the fact remains and will remain eternally, that the whole problem of getting on in the world, of building up a business, of gaining high-promotion must be solved by nobody but yourself.

Many of the current articles and periodicals and books and manuals and "courses" and correspondence courses and charts are of genuine value to those having the will to digest and apply the suggestions and principles and facts furnished. Much of our modern inspirational literature is written by men possessing excellent brains. Much of it comes, in the form of interview, from men who have demonstrated the soundness and success of the pointers and principles they enunciate. Actual achievements and how they were achieved are lucidly explained, not mere airy, untested theories propounded.

But when all is said and done, no article, no book, no course of instruction, no chart can make you successful. You have to do the job yourself.

In this world no human being can do very much for you. It has been proved that each of us must work out his own success, or failure. I wonder if there isn't danger today that business men may be allowing the notion to get into their heads that if they simply conduct enough research, accumulate enough information, digest enough views of experts, pursue enough charts, adopt enough scientific selling and distributing systems, then they cannot fail to succeed.

I wonder, too, if some considerable number of workmen haven't allowed themselves to get into the mental attitude that their wages and their well-being are dependent chiefly upon the amount of ability and aggressiveness exercised by their union leaders in dealing with the bosses? It won't work, my masters. We can't be made successful by the efforts of others. We each must do our own thinking. We each must paddle our own canoe. We each must exercise our own judgment. We each must make our own decision.

Upon how we ourselves think and act depends how we shall fare, whether well or badly.

Really, there would seem to be a softening of the fibre of self-reliance these days. We see this in the tendency to run to the government to protect us from this and that and the next thing or to do this and the next thing for us. We see in the appointing of overlords such as Judge Landis and Will Hays and Augustus Thomas by various important business groups. We see it in the wholesale swallowing of baits guaranteed to make the swallows rich without the necessity of working. We see it in the lamentable stampede of all classes to run away from themselves and their own thoughts and mental resources. We see it in the increasing numbers of men who prefer to throw in their lot with some established concern rather than strike out for themselves. We see it in the pell-mell rush to Cote and other of his kind.

Let us get it into our heads firmly and fixedly that each of us must build his own "nest" or dig his own grave, that each of us must sink or swim through his own efforts, that success or failure is not meted out to us but carved out for us by our own activities or lack of activity.

Earn While You Learn

Willys-Overland

If you are 21 years of age or older, in good physical condition, and can speak English, here is an unusual opportunity for you to secure the benefits of expert instruction that will fit you for a better job and higher wages.
We have established fifty Training Sections, where we are prepared to train inexperienced men for occupations ordinarily classified as skilled.
Wages of 37 1-2 cents per hour and upward are paid during the training period, which ranges from three to ten days, depending upon the ability of the student and the nature of the work.
When training is completed, students are placed on regular production in various factory departments, where very satisfactory earnings are possible.
Your transportation to Toledo will be refunded after 30 days' work. Investigate This Opportunity Today

EVERETT TRUE—

By CONDO

How do you like the looks of our new home, Everett?

Looks all right from the outside.

Let's go right in the living room here and chat till dinner is ready.

No, let's go into your dining room. I notice it's not so full of fussy junk. That living room—well, if it's ever dug up in 6000 years from now they'll say you were an Egyptian king!!

SHORT SHAVINGS

Column of Anecdotes About Home Folks

What is the funniest experience that ever happened to you? Write it out briefly and send it to the Short Shavings Editor of The Lima News. For the best contributed Short Shaving published in the week The News will pay $1.00. Name and address must be signed.

Miss Florence Boroff, Mendon, R. D. 2, sends in the following: "One day a Sunday school teacher asked how many in her class wanted to go to Heaven. They all stood up but a little red headed boy. The teacher said, 'Why, Johnnie, don't you want to go to Heaven?' Johnnie said, 'Yes, but not with this bunch.'"

Mrs. R. E. Korr, Lima R. D. 3, submits the following: "Her children were in the habit of calling their Sunday school cards, 'Jesus cards.' She insisted that they say Sunday School cards, whereupon, a few days later, while at their play, one of them asked, 'Who makes it rain?' 'Why, Jesus,' Byron answered. Harold spoke up and said, 'Oh, no, you mustn't say Jesus, you must say Sunday School.'"

Mrs. Jane Early, 1008 E. North St., tells about a little boy whose father had given him a letter to be placed in the mail. "James," said the father, "did you take that letter to the postoffice and pay the postage on it?" "Father," the lad replied, "I saw a lot of men putting letters in a little place in the postoffice and when no one was looking I slipped yours in for nothing."

O. E. Williams looked out of the window of the gas station five miles south of Bucyrus, and what should he see but the first snake of spring. He killed it at once in spite of the protests of those who wanted to keep it for "snake-biting and prescription getting purposes."

Theodore Harris, at the American Bank, saw a man chasing his hat on High-st. Another caught the runaway hat and returned it to the owner. He began to brush the dust off. In doing so he knocked the hat out of his own hand and started chasing it all over again.

Vitality and Strength

Follow This Advice

Cambridge, Ohio—"As I look back I wonder how much sickness I could have avoided, had I known of and taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when I first showed signs of nervousness and a decline in strength. I was willing to try anything that was suggested to me and did try many things, but no seemed to reach the seat of the trouble or do me any good. At last I heard of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, when my condition was very low, and its tonic strengthening effect was felt before the first bottle was entirely used. By increased strength and cheerfulness of spirits, I continued taking it until I had used six bottles, when there was no need for me to use it further, as I was a well woman."—Mrs. E. A. Stevens, 405 S. 5th St.

Miss B. Aiken Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"When I was about fourteen years of age my face, arms and scalp broke out with eczema. It started with little pimples and blisters which spread rapidly. I could not stand any clothing on my arms, and my face was disfigured. My scalp itched and burned so that I could not sleep, and my hair became dry and lifeless and fell out in handfuls."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a sample. It helped me so I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Burnside Aiken, Lyndon, Kansas.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum helps to prevent skin troubles.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden 62, Mass." Sold every-where. 50c. 10c. 5c. and 2c. Talcum 25c. 10c. Cuticura Soap shaves without rug.

Modern Science, In Fitting and Making Glasses, Has Changed All That "Father Knew"

The old-fashioned "spectacle" has been replaced by chic, comfortable, efficient glasses that suit you individually.

Have you ever noticed that there is such a thing as "personality in eyeglasses?"

Our first consideration is, of course, accuracy and comfort, but—we do not forget appearance.

Different faces require lenses and mountings of different shapes and kinds.

We select the shape and size of lenses and style of mounting most becomingly adapted to the individuality of your features.

KINGNUT

To spread on bread

It has been quite fair with a decision from the commission that it was expected about two weeks ago that Kingnut would be sold at a price of 10c per pound. We've under-estimated the demand for this product. It's now selling at 15c per pound. We're sorry that we can't get it at a lower price, but we'll do our best to keep it at 15c. It's a real nut food, and it's a real treat. It's a real nut food, and it's a real treat. It's a real nut food, and it's a real treat.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. Then you destroy it entirely.

To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.
